WHAT?

Lesley University is a multi-site university specializing in education, the arts, human services, and management. Lesley's six schools offer undergraduate and graduate programs at campuses in Cambridge, and Boston, online and in 15 states.

Students enrolled in off-campus sites are provided access to the libraries' collections through article document delivery services and a broad range of internet-accessible full-text electronic books and databases.

The Ludcke Library's Internet homepage (<http://www.lesley.edu/library>) provides access to its catalog; to the catalogs of other libraries; off-campus library handbook and instructional guides.
